FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Living on the Land An EXPO for Rural Property Owners”

“Living on the Land.... An EXPO for Rural Property Owners” will be held on Saturday, September 6th at the Scott County Fairgrounds in Jordan, MN. The EXPO will include exciting seminars on issues related to living on small acreages including livestock, crop production, season extension, zoning rules and many other topics. In addition, there will be vendors showcasing products, programs, and equipment designed for acreage owners. A special feature will be the “Aisle of Breeds” featuring livestock suited to small farms and acreages. The EXPO is organized by The University of Minnesota Extension. The expo will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. with seminars starting at 9:30 a.m. and concluding at 4:00 p.m. Vendors will be available throughout the day. Concessions will be provided all day by the 4-H clubs.

Anyone interested in being a vendor or sponsor should contact Tana Haugen-Brown at the Sherburne County Extension Office at 763-241-2720 or thbrown@umn.edu. Questions on attending can also be directed to Tana Haugen-Brown.
